About the Lockers at Universal Studios Florida. Some theme parks like Disney have policies that allow you to bring your bags on rides. But for many of the attractions at Universal Studios, you need to stow your bags in lockers.. The reason for the locker rule is that many rides are fast, have upside-down twists and turns, or are motion simulated.

We frogs like to travel light whenever we go to Universal Orlando Resort, but for some rides, locker usage is unavoidable -- even if you're just carrying your phone and wallet.Unlike at Walt Disney World, where you can take your bags on almost all rides, Universal requires you to check your bags and belongings before you board many of the rides at ...

Universal's official stance is they are still allowing them, but they have to get dropped off at the business center. That incurs a charge per weight ($15 for under 25 lbs, $25 for 25-50 lbs, etc). OL also told me that doesn't work for them, because they need a load dock for delivery and now Loews won't give them access.
