What is a snapshot of global PV markets?

This 11th edition of the "Snapshot of Global PV Markets" aims at providing preliminary information on how the PV market developed in 2022. The 28th edition of the PVPS complete "Trends in Photovoltaic Applications" report will be published in Q4 2023.

Who will dominate the global PV module market in 2023?

A total of 18 Chinese companies were selected in the top 20 list, with a total output of more than 440GW in 2023, gradually taking over the global PV module market with their unique advantages. LONGi, the king of the PV industry, will supply 66.44GW of modules in 2023, up 42% year on year.

Which countries have a strong PV market?

The American market contracted to 18,6 GW under the combined influence of trade issues and grid connection backlogs, whilst Brazil installed a high 9,9 GW, nearly doubling the previous year's new capacity. India once again showed strong growth with 18,1 GW, predominantly in centralised systems, and a PV penetration of nearly 10%.

Which countries have the most PV installations in the world?

The majority share of global PV installations is held by Asia-Pacific and has once again increased in 2023, rising to over 60%, with a cumulative installed capacity of at least 947 GW. A closer look shows us that it is China, not Asia-Pacific as a whole, that has increased its share (see Figures 6A and 6B).

Why did the global PV base grow so much in 2022?

The global PV base once again grew significantly in 2022, reaching 1 185 GW (? 1,2 TW) of cumulative capacity according to preliminary market data, both despite and because of post-covid price hikes and European geo-political strife.

How much does photovoltaics contribute to the world's electricity demand?

In total, PV contribution amounts to over 8% of the electricity demand in the world. Public policies with regards to photovoltaics tend to change as governments seek to promote solar or react to changing costs to investors or even state aid programs.
